Driver Injured

Larry Cuddington, 13, of 335 S. Garfield, Traverse City, was injured early this morning when the car he was driving struck a tree on S. Garfield near Rusch road south of the city. Cuddington was treated at Munson Medical Center for lacerations and later dismissed. Grand Traverse sheriff's department said the northbound car traveled some 95 feet along the right side of the road before striking the tree. The vehicle required wrecker service, the department said. The mishap was reported at 12:21 a.m.

Folk Singers to Appear Here

Chuck and Joni Mitchell, a husband and wife folk singing team, will be performing tonight, Saturday and Sunday evenings at the Bucktooth Club, a new coffee-house located at the Holiday Ski Lodge off U. S. 31 on Holiday road. The couple met while working at the famous "Penny Farthing" in Toronto. Joni, a Canadian, plays a 10-string guitar and also writes and sings her own songs. Chuck specializes in the songs of Bertolt Brecht and Kurt Weill. The Mitchells have just returned from the Mariposa Folk Festival, Canada's famous festival which compares to America's Newport festival. Between them, they offer a mixture of ballads, ragtime and blues. They have appeared extensively in the downstate area, especially in and around Detroit. After their appearance in Traverse City, the couple will leave for Jacksonville, Florida for a booking at the "Jongleur".
