

PHILADELPHIA DAILY NEWS

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1966 43

Jerry GaghanIt Togetherness Not
For This Couple

HARMONY OFF THE FLOOR: The husband-and-wife folk music team of Chuck and Joni Mitchell, at the 2d Fret, are unique among show business duos. They work alone in separate sets, but never sing side by side. "We're two altogether different types," Joni explained. "And our voices clash when we work together." She hails from Saskatoon, Sask., and writes her own songs. He's from Detroit and they met at Toronto's Mariposa Festival three years ago. Joni's number "Circle Game" was cut by Ian & Sylvia and her "Urge for Going" was done by Tom Rush and George Hamilton IV. . . . Mike Douglas will marshal the Detroit Thanksgiving Day parade and then open a pre-soldout weekend run at the Twin Coaches, Pittsburgh, that night. Mike will act as conferecier for the American Motors Show at Convention Hall here, Dec. 3, featuring Edie Adams and Allen & Rossi. . . . Gov.-elect Ray Shafer has accepted the Pennsylvania chairmanship of the American Committee for Italian Flood Relief.

JONI

. . . soloist

PERSONALITY PARADE: Bob Crane, who plays Col. Hogan in the TV series "Hogan's Heroes," will be in today plugging his new Epic album—"Bob Crane, His Drums and Orchestra. Playing the Funny Side of TV." Crane is at the traps and also does the narration for themes from his own and rival shows "Get Smart," "F Troop," "Andy Griffith," etc. . . . Lana Cantrell, the Australian new voice currently rousing ring-siders at the Latin Casino, has an LP being released by RCA Victor Jan. 23. Miss Cantrell has been signed exclusively for four Ed Sullivan shows, the first Dec. 18, and does a "Hollywood Palace" in April. Lana also has the distinction of being the only femme card-carrying member of the Playboy Clubs. Huge Heffner flipped when he heard her at the London bunny hutch. . . . Soupy Sales starts rehearsals Sunday on "Come Live With Me," the comedy opening at the Walnut, Dec. 26. Soupy is also waxing a single for Capitol under the show's title.