2nd verse:

```
I went looking for a cause
Or a strong cat without claws
Or any reason to resume
And I found this empty seat
In this crowded waiting room
(Everybody waiting)
Old man sleeping on his bags
Women with that teased-up kind of hair
Kids with the jitters in their legs
And those wide, wide open stares
And the kids got cokes and chocolate bars
There's a thin man smoking a fat cigar
Jealous lovin'll make you crazy
If you can't find your goodness
'Cause you've lost your heart

Well I've got this berth and this roll-down blind I've got this fold-up sink And these rocks and these cactuses going by And a bottle of German wine to drink Settle down into the clickety clack With the clouds and the stars to read Dreaming of the pleasure I'm going to have Wathing you harline recede (my vain darling) Watching your hair and clouds and stars I'm rocking away in a sleeping car This jealous lovin's bound to make me Crazy I can't find my goodness I lost 000000 222100
