

Changes Made In Northfield Entertainment

NORTHFIELD — Two changes in the Entertainment Series have been announced by the Northfield and Mount Hermon Schools. "The Hello People" will be the group appearing with U Joni Mitchell in the program tomorrow evening. "The First Edition" was originally scheduled.

The date of the appearance of the Alvin Ailey American Modern Dance Theater has been changed from Feb. 1 to April 19. Tickets for the original date will be honored on April 19.

During the winter term two special programs have been added to the series. A recital will be presented Jan. 11, by Miss Claire Watson, an alumnae of the Northfield School for Girls. One of Europe's leading operatic sopranos, she is a member of both the Vienna State Opera and the Bavarian State Opera and has often appeared at Covent Garden, La Scala in Milan and at the Salzburg Festival.

Through the courtesy of Miss Watson and an anonymous donor, this concert will be presented free of charge for students and the general public.

"Blood, Sweat and Tears", a music group, will appear Feb. 1 as a highlight of the Northfield and Mount Hermon Schools winter carnival. There will be an admission charge for this program which is open to the public.
